A note from our pastor

As we begin the month of May, churches around our nation are joining together for the National Day of Prayer. This year's president of the initiative is Dr. Ronnie Floyd, Senior Pastor of Cross Church – a Southern Baptist church in Northwest Arkansas. On the official website (www.nationaldayofprayer.org) he wrote, "Praying for America personally, in your church, and in a National Day of Prayer observance on Thursday, May 3, is a responsibility of each Bible-believing follower of Jesus Christ."

Every year in Cedar Hill, churches across our city come together at the High School to pray together for our city, our state, and our nation. Our nation has never been completely unified, when it comes to honoring the One True God. However, when the Church of Jesus Christ within America rises up, God's blessing pours out. The psalmist said, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance" (Psalm 33:12).

I hope that you will join us Thursday evening at 7:00pm as we join together at the Cedar Hill High School Performing Arts Center. You'll be glad you did!

Dear Ladies of CHBC—

How is it that we are already to May 2018? Last month we took care of our spring cleaning of our spiritual souls.

We got rid of all those sinful thoughts and ideas and blew them away. We took care of the little white lies that were swept under the rug. We un-cluttered our lives of busyness. And, most importantly, we blew the dust off of the word of God so that we could focus on what is really important. Beth brought the devotional and shared her heart.

We drew secret sister names and have begun the process of praying over our secret sister. The cute little coin purses remind us every day to pray and lift that sister to the Lord.

Then we went to see Anita Renfroe and laughed our heads off. Laughter is good for the soul.

Please join me on May 9th at 10 am in the fellowship hall. Bring your button collection. Even if you only have a few, it's ok. I think you will like what we create with them.

I look forward to meeting again.

In Christ,

Suzanne
